East Central Europe is a peer-reviewed journal of social sciences and humanities with a focus on the region between the Baltic and the Adriatic, published in cooperation with the Central European University.

The journal seeks to maintain the heuristic value of regional frameworks of interpretation as models of historical explanation, transcending the nation-state at sub-national or trans-national level, linking them to global academic debates. East Central Europe has an interdisciplinary orientation, combining area studies with history and social sciences, most importantly political science, sociology, anthropology, and cultural studies. It aims to stimulate the dialogue and exchange between scholarship produced in and on East-Central Europe and other area study traditions, in a global context.

Maciej Janowski is Associate Professor at the Institute of History, Polish Academy of Sciences (Head of Workshop of the History of Intelligentsia since 2006) recurrent Visiting Professor at the History Department of Central European University in Budapest.

Constantin Iordachi is Associate Professor at the History Department, Central European University, Co-Director of Pasts, Inc. Center for Historical Studies, CEU (www.pasts.ceu.hu).

Balázs Trencsényi, is Assistant Professor in the Department of History, Central European University, Budapest.
