Brill's Annual of Afroasiatic Languages and Linguistics

• ISSN 1876-6633

Brill's Annual of Afroasiatic Languages and Linguistics is a new peer-reviewed international forum devoted to the descriptive and theoretical study of Afroasiatic languages. The territory of the Afroasiatic family spans a vast area to the South of the Mediterranean, extending from the Atlantic Ocean to the Middle East and reaching deep into the heart of Africa. Some of the Afroasiatic languages have been studied for centuries, while others still remain partially or entirely undocumented.

In the course of the second half of the 20th century, the constantly increasing qualitative and quantitative contribution of Afroasiatic languages to the elaboration of linguistic theory has met with considerable attention from the linguistic community. The Annual will seek top-level contributions in phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, comparative and historical linguistics. Its target audience comprises specialists in Afroasiatic languages and general linguists.

Submission of Articles

The editors of the new annual are soliciting (proposals for) articles to be included in the 2009 edition and later years. The 2009 edition is scheduled for publication in November 2009 and the deadline for submission is: 1 March 2009. For further information on Brill's Annual of Afroasiatic Languages and Linguistics or to download the Author Guidelines go to: www.brill.nl/baall.
