

Online Publications from Brill

Brill's publications have long been recognized as invaluable to scholars, librarians, students, and academic professionals worldwide. To meet the growing needs of our market, we are pleased to offer a rapidly expanding list of online products.

Brill Online brillonline.nl

"In short, Brill Online provides access to unique content, including its own imprints and the World Christian Database. Scholars who appreciate this content will undoubtedly appreciate the greater accessibility that the Brill Online interface provides. The platform provides this accessibility without distracting from the unique content... Highly recommended."
R. Watts, CHOICE, March 2008

Brill Online brings together major online reference works from Brill under one platform.

A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2008

Nijhoff Online nijhoffonline.nl

With the launch of The Hague Academy Collected Courses Online / Recueil des cours de l'Académie de la Haye en ligne on Nijhoff Online in 2008, Brill now offers an online platform for its e-book collections. The Hague Academy Collected Courses Online / Recueil des Cours de l'Académie de la Haye en ligne opens up online access to over 80 years of the history of international law to students and researchers around the world.

The Hague Academy Collected Courses Online

The Hague Academy of International Law is a centre for high-level education in public and private international law. The Academy's scientific body, the Curatorium, calls upon foremost specialists, including academics, practitioners, diplomats, and other leading experts from all over the world, to deliver courses to an international audience in English or French. The courses are published in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law, which are the most important encyclopaedic publication on private and public international law.

Key Features

- Essential online resource for law libraries
- Over 330 volumes, over 150,000 pages available online
- Content of new courses added to the online edition throughout the year
- Online edition is fully searchable and bilingual

Primary Sources Online primarysourcesonline.nl

Our primary source collections give scholars the opportunity to consult rare, hard to find material, and enable libraries around the world to fill gaps in their collections.

Related E-Collection: Human Rights Documents Online (HRDO)

Human Rights Documents Online (HRDO) will ultimately contain all human rights documents collected by the Human Rights Internet (HRI) in Ottawa in Canada since 1980. These documents emanate from 483 non-governmental human rights organizations (NGOs) worldwide, some of which have a universal scope, whilst others focus on the attainment of human rights in a specific area of the world. For more information see hrd.idcpublishers.info

Brill Journal Archive Online

The Brill Journal Archive Online offers access to almost 50,000 articles published before the year 2000, covering 6,000 issues of now 89 journals. In 2009 Brill will be publishing six new journals, which were previously published elsewhere, adding another 179 volumes to the archive. Libraries will automatically have full access to the archival content of all the journals they currently subscribe to, and will continue to have access to archival content for as long as active subscriptions are maintained. Although access to subscribed journals is included in the subscription price, institutional customers may wish to consider purchasing the whole collection or subject-specific collections. The purchase option guarantees perpetual access to the Brill Journal Archive Online. The Brill Journal Archive Online is exclusively hosted on IngentaConnect.

Structure

Nijhoff E-Book Collections consists of two subject series (International Law and Human Rights / Humanitarian Law) and each subject series is broken down into three annual collections (2006, 2007, 2008). The scope of a subject series is defined by its coverage. An annual collection equals the official copyright year of the book titles included. So the collection 2009 will hold all the book titles with 2009 as their official copyright year. New annual collections will be specified and become available by June of each year.

Pricing Options

The annual collection Unlimited Site License list price is set at 70% of the combined list price for the equivalent collection in print.

For a 30-day free trial (institutions only), consortia deals and other pricing options, please send an e-mail to brillonline@brill.nl or brillonline@brillusa.com for customers in the Americas.

Availability

The e-books will be published as annual collections by publication year in two broad subject categories: International Law and Human Rights/Humanitarian Law. In 2009 the collections of 2006, 2007, 2008 (all June) and 2009 (July) will become available.
