

Prefatory Note, Note by the Editors, Introduction, Said Mahmoudi Professor Faculty of Law, Stockholm University, Welcoming Remarks, Gustaf Lindencrona, President Stockholm University, John Norton Moore, Director Center for Oceans Law and Policy, Keynote Addresses, Hans Blix Former Swedish Foreign Minister, Bjorn Lomborg, Professor of Statistics University of Aarhus, Hans Corell, Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs Legal Counsel of the United Nations.

Panel I: Impact of the Stockholm Declaration on International Environmental Law Principles, John Norton Moore, Moderator, The Destiny of the Principles of the Stockholm Declaration, Alexandre Kiss, The Stockholm Declaration and the Structure and Processes of International Environmental Law, Jutta Brunnée, Impact on the Development of International Law on Cooperation: The United Nations Law of the Sea, Straddling Stocks and Biodiversity Convention, Patricia Birnie.

Panel II: Impact of the Stockholm Declaration on International Environmental Institutions, David Anderson, Moderator, The Marine Environment and International Environmental Governance, Geir Ulfstein, The World Trade Organization and the Marine Environment, Alan Boyle, International Financial Institutions and the Marine Environment: A View from the World Bank, David Freestone.

Panel III: Regional Protection of the Marine Environment, Tullio Treves, Moderator, Regional Approaches to the Protection of the Marine Environment, Tullio Treves, Protection of the Marine Environment of the Baltic Sea Area- The Impact of the Stockholm Declaration, Jonas Ebbesson, Soft and Hard Law Aspects of Fisheries Issues: Same Recent Global and Regional Approaches, William Edeson, Regional Protection of the Marine Environment in the Northeast Atlantic Under the OSPAR Convention of 1992, Rainer Lagoni, Polar Seas, Alexander S. Skaridov.

Panel IV: Marine Environment in Enclosed and Semi- Enclosed Seas, Anatoly Kolodkin, Moderator, New Forms of Cooperation in the Mediterranean System of Environmental Protection, Maria Gavouneli, The Black Sea: A Case Study in Regional Cooperation, Nilufer Dral, The Protection of the Marine Environment in the Adriatic Sea, Igor Via.

Panel V: Marine Environment Jurisdictional Issues, Choon Ho Park, Moderator, Jurisdictional Developments and the Law of the Sea Convention: Some Observations on Vessel-Source Pollution, Kari Hakapää, Marine Environment Jurisdictional Issues: Coastal States, Erik Franckx, Flag State Perspectives, Marie Jacobsson, Particularly Sensitive Sea Areas: Current Developments, J. Ashley Roach.

Panel VI: Science and the Marine Environment, Dolliver Nelson, Moderator, The Stockholm Declaration and Law of Marine Environment: An NGO Perspective, Bertil Hägerhäll, Environmental Problems in the Aegean Sea, Bayram and Ayaka Amaha Öztürk, Of Scientists, Science and the Continental Shelf, George Taft.

Panel VII: Sustainable Development and the Marine Environment, Saiya N Nandan, Moderator, Three Decades' Progress in High Seas Fisheries Governance: Towards a Common Heritage Regime?, Moritaka Hayashi, Management of the Utilization of Living Marine Resources, Thorir Skarphedinsson, Iceland's Adherence to the International Whaling Commission, Stefan Asmundsson, Moratorium or Management?, Ray Gambell, Replacing Bias with Reality to Achieve the Stockholm Declaration's Dream of a Poverty and Pollution Free World, Dick Monroe.

Panel VIII Future Developments, Alexander Yankov, Moderator, Same Future Developments in Liability and Compensation for Environmental Damage at Sea, Rosalie P. Balkin, International Challenges in Addressing Marine Environmental Problems, Mary Beth West.