1. Aims and Scope

Brill's Annual of Afroasiatic Languages and Linguistics is a new peer-reviewed international forum devoted to the descriptive and theoretical study of Afroasiatic languages. It welcomes top-level contributions in phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, comparative and historical linguistics.

2. Submission of Articles

Submissions to the annual should be sent electronically as an email attachment (in PDF, Word or RTF format) to the Series Contact Editor: Sabrina Bendjaballah, sabrina.bendjaballah@linguist.jussieu.fr

Books for review and book reviews should be sent to the Book Review Editor: Chris Reintges, CReintges@linguist.jussieu.fr

3. Originality of the submitted work

Submissions should be original work that has neither been published nor simultaneously submitted for publication elsewhere. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights to Brill. Authors are also responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not hold copyright and to assure that due acknowledgements are included where required.

4. General instructions for submission

All submitted papers will be subject to double, blind peer review. For the purpose of reviewing the draft paper should be anonymous. No author details should be identifiable from the article itself or in the acknowledgements. Details of the author(s) should be submitted in a separate file and include the author's name, affiliation, full postal and email addresses.

Papers that are submitted for initial consideration should be complete, including all notes, bibliographical references, tables, etc. The final draft of a manuscript accepted for publication must be submitted both as hard copy and electronically. Electronic files should be saved in .pdf format. Final versions and printouts must be proofread carefully before submission; please use your spelling and grammar check.

Manuscript pages should be numbered consecutively, double-spaced with wide margins on all sides (use ragged rather than justified right margins).

5. Language of contributions

Articles and book reviews should be written in English.

6. Transliteration and Orthography

All linguistic data must be transliterated.

7. Style considerations

The annual reserves the right to copy-edit contributions to conform to its style. Do not use desktop publishing features such as justification, centering, or bold-face type. Italics may be indicated by either underlining or using proper italics. Do not hyphenate words at the end of a line. TAB should be restricted to a paragraph indent.

For general rules on style, see the Chicago Manual of Style

(http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html), 15th ed., University of Chicago Press, 2003, or the most recent edition) or the MLA Style Guide.

8. Abstracts

Articles should include a short abstract (150-250 words).

9. Keywords

Please supply 2-6 keywords (in lowercase letters), to be placed below the abstract, for indexing purposes.

10. Proofs

Authors of accepted contributions will receive one set of proofs for proofreading, in the form of a PDF file per email attachment. In the event of a multi-authored contribution, proofs are sent to the first-named author unless otherwise requested. The proofs should be returned promptly within the period requested, with no corrections marked other than those made in the typesetting or conversion process.

11. Off-prints

Authors of articles or reviews will receive electronic off-prints from the publisher.
