

Scope

The Journal of Chinese Overseas (JCO) carries research articles, reports, and book reviews on Chinese overseas throughout the world, and the communities from which they trace their origins. Working across regions and disciplines, the Journal explores Chineseness in its many diverse settings. The Board of Editors is drawn from fields as diverse as history, anthropology, sociology, geography, cultural studies, and political science. The Journal contributes to transnational studies, as well as the study of Chinese communities in specific regional, national and local contexts. The first issue of this journal was published in May 2005, and the first issue published by Brill appeared in May 2009. We seek your support through submission of articles, subscriptions, and comments. Articles and reports for submission should follow the guidelines described below.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Submission of an article for publication in any of Brills' journals implies the following:

1. All authors are in agreement about the content of the manuscript and its submission to the journal.
2. The contents of the manuscript have been tacitly or explicitly approved by the responsible authorities where the research was carried out.
3. The manuscript has not been published previously, in part or in whole, in English or any other language, except as an abstract, part of a published lecture or academic thesis.
4. The manuscript has not and will not be submitted to any other journal while still under consideration for this journal.
5. If accepted, the author agrees to transfer copyright to BRILL and the manuscript will not be published elsewhere in any form, in English or any other language, without prior written consent of the Publisher.
6. If the submission includes figures, tables, or large sections of text that have been published previously, the author has obtained written permission from the original copyright owner(s) to reproduce these items in the current manuscript in both the online and print publications of the journal. All copyrighted material has been properly credited in the manuscript. For more information on the reuse of figures, please go to brill.nl/downloads/Rights-in-Images.pdf.

Submission

Authors are cordially invited to submit articles to the Chief Editor, Prof. Liu Hong by e-mail at: jco@ntu.edu.sg.

The Journal will start to use online submission soon. Authors will be able to submit their manuscripts via the Editorial Manager (EM) online submission system. Details will be provided when the online submission system is ready.

Contact Address

For any questions or problems relating to your manuscript please contact the Chief Editor, Prof. Liu Hong at: jco@ntu.edu.sg. For more information about JCO, manuscript format, and any queries or comments, please contact Dr. Kwan Siu Hing at: jco@ntu.edu.sg.

Submission Requirements

Language

Manuscripts should be written in American English. Spelling should be consistent throughout.

Length

Research Articles submitted to JCO should be 25-35 doubled-spaced pages in length.

Where appropriate, photographs to be printed in black and white are welcome. The chief editors will arrange for each submission to be anonymously refereed by at least two relevant scholars.

A research report should not exceed 20 pages, double-spaced, and should contain original data.

Unlike a full-length article, a research report needs not be presented in a thorough theoretical context. Research reports will normally be reviewed by the chief editors, and if necessary, in consultation with a relevant member of the editorial board.

A book review should contain 1,000-1,500 words.

Manuscript Structure

The author's name and affiliation should appear on a separate title page only. Each article should be in the sequence of main text (divided into sections), Notes, and References Cited.

Abstract and Bio

If accepted, the author will be asked to send the final revised version together with a final abstract of 100-150 words, and a biographical data of not more than 80 words including e-mail address.

Dates

17 June 2003, 100 B.C., A.D. 600, 1980s (not 1980's), etc.

Quotations

Use double quotation marks (“”) for a simple quotation. For a quotation within a quotation, use single quotation marks. A comma or a period (full stop) should be placed inside quotation marks in all situations.

For texts longer than 3 lines, use a block quotation, indented half an inch from the left margin. In this case, no quotation marks are necessary at the beginning and end of the quotation.

Romanization and Chinese Characters

Transliteration of Putonghua (Mandarin) should be in Hanyu Pinyin.

Chinese words that are not proper nouns should appear in italicized, un-capitalized Pinyin.

Unlike in references, spacing of Pinyin in the text should group characters semantically and is up to the discretion of the author (i.e. 流动人口 may appear as floating population or as liudong renkou). Chinese characters may be included in the text, in parentheses following the transliteration. In the case of transliteration of other Chinese dialects, indicate, for example, C for Cantonese, H for Hokkien (Minnanhua), etc.

Bibliography and Text Citation

Submissions should use author-date citation in the text (for example, McKeown 2001: 93-94), and provide full citation in the references. Other formats to observe are as follows:

Please note that citation of Chinese sources, like the Zhuang Guotu source listed below, is in Hanyu Pinyin and Chinese characters, with a translation in English of the title only):

Figures and Tables

All figures and tables must be cited consecutively in the text.

Figures should be submitted as separate source files in .eps, .tif, or .jpg format, in a size suitable for the typesetting area of the journal. The resolution of these files should be at least 300 dpi for half-tone figures, and 600 dpi for line drawings. Number the files, and indicate in the manuscript where they are to appear (Fig. 1 here).

The text in a figure must be legible, and should not be smaller than corps 7. The size of this lettering for any text in a figure should be the same for all figures in the manuscript.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to the designated author by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed. Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proofs should be returned promptly.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to the corresponding author for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO green publisher. Authors are allowed to post the pdf post-print version of their articles on their own personal websites free of charge. This means they can show the article exactly as it appears in print. The institute employing the author is allowed to post the post-refereed, but pre-print version of articles free of charge on its repository. The post-refereed, pre-print version means the final accepted version of the manuscript before typesetting.

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

In case the author wishes to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option, which allows for a non-exclusive Open Access publication in exchange for an Article Publishing Fee, and sign a special Brill Open Consent to Publish.

More information on Brill's policy on Open Access can be found on brill.nl/open-access-policy
The Brill Open Consent to Publish can be downloaded from brill.nl/downloads/BrillOpen-Consent-to-Publish.pdf.
