

Scope

Worldviews: Global Religions, Culture, and Ecology (WO) is an international academic journal that studies the relationships between religion, culture, and ecology worldwide. The journal addresses how cultural and ecological developments influence the world's major religions, giving rise to new forms of religious expression, and how in turn religious belief and cultural background can influence peoples' attitudes toward ecology.

Ethical and Legal Conditions

Submission of an article for publication in any of Brills' journals implies the following:

1. All authors are in agreement about the content of the manuscript and its submission to the journal.
2. The contents of the manuscript have been tacitly or explicitly approved by the responsible authorities where the research was carried out.
3. The manuscript has not been published previously, in part or in whole, in English or any other language, except as an abstract, part of a published lecture or academic thesis.
4. The manuscript has not and will not be submitted to any other journal while still under consideration for this journal.
5. If accepted, the author agrees to transfer copyright to BRILL and the manuscript will not be published elsewhere in any form, in English or any other language, without prior written consent of the Publisher.
6. If the submission includes figures, tables, or large sections of text that have been published previously, the author has obtained written permission from the original copyright owner(s) to reproduce these items in the current manuscript in both the online and print publications of the journal. All copyrighted material has been properly credited in the manuscript. For more information on the reuse of figures, please go to brill.nl/downloads/Rights-in-Images.pdf.

Submission

Submissions may be hard copy or e-mailed as Word attachments, and should be sent to the Editor:

Christopher Key Chapple
Doshi Professor of Indic and Comparative Theology
Loyola Marymount University
1 LMU Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90045, USA
E-mail: cchapple@lmu.edu
Tel: +1-310-338-2846
Fax: +1-310-338-1947

Paper submissions will not be returned, so the author should retain an additional copy for reference.

Authors whose work is accepted for publication will be asked to supply an electronic version of the article as a Word attachment (e-mail: cchapple@lmu.edu).

Please note: the final, accepted version of your paper must adopt the following “house style” (see below). The editors reserve the right to make alterations that do not involve any change of meaning.

Contributors are expected to assign copyright to the publisher; though they remain free to use material in subsequent publications written or edited by themselves provided Worldviews: Global Religions, Culture, and Ecology is acknowledged as the original place of publication.

Double-blinded Peer Review

All submissions must also be formatted to allow for blind refereeing. To allow for this, authors are asked to identify themselves only on the title page, which should include their names, complete postal addresses, e-mail address and any acknowledgements in the form preferred for publication. If submissions are sent by e-mail, all other files (manuscript, figures, tables, etc.) should not contain any information concerning author names, institutions, etc. The names of these files and the document properties should also be anonymized.

Submission Requirements

Language

Submissions should be in English or accompanied by a draft English translation. Spelling should be consistent throughout.

Length

Papers should normally be a maximum of 8000 words.

Manuscript Structure

Text

The text of the article should be in Times New Roman 12. The first sentence of each paragraph should be indented. Please do not leave an extra line between paragraphs (except where the paragraph ends with an indented quotation).

Abstract and Keywords

An abstract of 100-200 words, and a list of four or five “keywords” should be provided for the use of abstracting services.

Headings

Headings should follow the pattern below:

Level 1: bold, flush left, 2 spaces above, 1 space below.

Level 2: italics, flush left, 1 space above, 1 space below.

It is helpful if levels are marked by numbers in the text for the typesetter.

Inverted Commas/Quotations

Use double inverted commas for quotations run in the text and where you are putting a word in inverted commas for emphasis. Use single inverted commas for quotes within quotes. Please set off larger sections of quoted text (i.e., anything over 50 words) by adding a blank line above and below the section, and indenting the block of text by .5 on the left. These block quotes should be in 11 pt and should not be enclosed in quotation marks.

Footnotes

Footnotes should be numbered consecutively throughout the text: 1, 2, 3... and should be in single spacing. When using bibliographic citations in the notes, please conform to the style used in the body text; e.g. ...as was shown by Hardin (1968: 1244-6).

Bibliographic Citations

Bibliographic citations in the text should include the author's last name and the title or year of publication, together with a page reference, where appropriate. Please do not use 'p' and 'pp' for citations in the text: (Hardin 1968: 1244-6).

References

A separate list of references should be provided in alphabetical order of author's name and increasing dates of publications, with the addition of an 'a' or 'b' to the date, where necessary. Book and journal titles should be italicized; article and chapter titles in double inverted commas. Use 'p' or 'pp' before the page numbers only for references from books; exclude them when referring to journal page numbers. Please do not abbreviate journal titles.

Hardin, G. 1968. "The Tragedy of the Commons". Science 162: 1243-8.

McIntosh, R.P. 1998. "The myth of community as organism." Perspectives in Biology and Medicine 41: 426-38.

Preston-Whyte, Eleanor. 1980. "The Environmental Debate in Anthropology" in T. O'Riordan and R.K. Turner (eds) Progress in Resource Management and Environmental Planning 2. New York: Wiley, pp. 44, 46.

Thomas, Keith. 1984. Man and the Natural World. Harmondsworth: Penguin Books.

Book Reviews

Guidelines for Book Reviewers

Thank you for your contribution to WORLDVIEWS. Please follow these simple procedures to ensure that we receive your document in a standard format that is easy to edit and process.

- The length of the review should be 1,000-1200 words maximum. Please do not use endnotes or footnotes. If you refer to a book other than the one under review, please use parenthetical reference data. Reviews should be typed for submission to the editor on standard 8-1/2 x 11-inch paper, double-spaced, one-inch margins around. If you are printing from a word processor, please use letter quality printing. We prefer Microsoft Word, but can also accept texts in Word Perfect and Note Bene. Please clearly indicate which word processing program you used, along with the version (i.e., WordPerfect 6.0).
- We ask that 1/3 of the review be devoted to summary of the book; 1/3 devoted to the book's importance or how it advances an argument in the field; and 1/3 devoted to critical analysis.
- At the top of the review, please give the following information: Author/Editor(s). Title (including subtitle). City: Publisher, Year of Publication. Cover (HB or PB) Number of pages. Price. ISBN.
- At the end of the review, please provide the following information: Your name and the name of your university or institute and country.

Submission of Book Reviews

Send copy by e-mail to: whitneyabauman@fiu.edu; or one hard copy to the Book Review Editor:

Whitney Bauman
Assistant Professor of Religion and Science
Department of Religious Studies
Florida International University
University Park, DM 301A
Miami, FL 33199
USA

Thank you again for your willingness to participate in the journal. We look forward to receiving your review. If you have any questions, please contact Whitney Bauman:
whitneyabauman@fiu.edu.

Publication

Proofs

Upon acceptance, a PDF of the article proofs will be sent to authors by e-mail to check carefully for factual and typographic errors. Authors are responsible for checking these proofs and are strongly urged to make use of the Comment & Markup toolbar to note their corrections directly on the proofs. At this stage in the production process only minor corrections are allowed.

Alterations to the original manuscript at this stage will result in considerable delay in publication and, therefore, are not accepted unless charged to the author. Proof corrections should be returned within 4 working days to the Editor-in-Chief.

E-Offprints

A PDF file of the article will be supplied free of charge by the publisher to authors for personal use. Brill is a RoMEO green publisher. Authors are allowed to post the pdf post-print version of their articles on their own personal websites free of charge. This means they can show the article exactly as it appears in print. The institute employing the author is allowed to post the post-refereed, but pre-print version of articles free of charge on its repository. The post-refereed, pre-print version means the final accepted version of the manuscript before typesetting.

Consent to Publish

Transfer of Copyright

By submitting a manuscript, the author agrees that the copyright for the article is transferred to the publisher if and when the article is accepted for publication. For that purpose the author needs to sign the Consent to Publish which will be sent with the first proofs of the manuscript.

Open Access

In case the author wishes to publish the article in Open Access he/she can choose the Brill Open option, which allows for a non-exclusive Open Access publication in exchange for an Article Publishing Fee, and sign a special Brill Open Consent to Publish.

More information on Brill's policy on Open Access can be found on brill.nl/open-access.

The Brill Open Consent to Publish can be downloaded from brill.nl/downloads/BrillOpen-Consent-to-Publish.pdf.