Iran and the Caucasus

Iran and the Caucasus, as of volume 6 published by Brill, deals with the history of the Iranian and Caucasian peoples. This multi-disciplinary journal aims at furthering our knowledge of the region on a wide variety of fields; economy, social sciences, archaeology, religion, literature, philology, and anthropology. Iran and the Caucasus is edited under the guidance of an editorial board consisting of scholars from the region itself, as well as from Europe and the United States. It is therefore unique in being a scholarly forum in the truest sense of the word on a region of growing importance, and a treasure-trove of information otherwise hard to get. Iran and The Caucasus is supported by the Caucasian Center for Iranian Studies in Yerevan, Armenia, and is now published by Brill. Articles are predominantly written in the English language.

- Covers topics on history, culture and linguistics as well as historico-political issues.
